4th Asian Pacific Congress on
Bronchology & Interventional Pulmonology

Jointly with 17th Annual Conference of IAB

VENUE : B. M. BIRLA SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY CENTRE

Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

It is a matter of great pleasure to invite you to attend the 4th Asian-Pacific Congress on Bronchology and Interventional Pulmonology (APCB2012), Jointly with BRONCOCON, being organized from 19th to 22nd January 2012, at the historical city- Jaipur, under the auspices of Indian Association for Bronchology (IAB). The venue of this mega conference will be the B. M. Birla Science and Technology Centre, situated in the heart of Jaipur city.

The scientific program of APCB 2012 will cover a wide array of topics in Bronchology and Interventional Pulmonology. Workshops with Hands-on-Practice for basic Bronchoscopy and Interventional Bronchoscopy such as: EBUS, Thoracoscopy, Autofluorescence Diagnosis, Endobronchial Therapy, Stenting, TBNA etc. will be novel attractions. There will also be best video and poster competitions.

We extend you all a very warm invitation to experience the charms of this wonderful city and actively participate in the discussions and share your knowledge and experience with other colleagues.

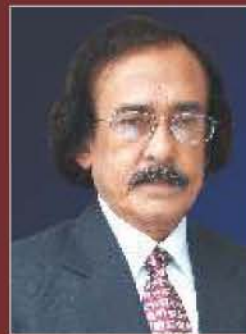

Please join with Family and Friends to enjoy the warm Hospitality of Rajasthan and Jaipur.

We look forward to welcome you to the “ Pink City” of India.

With Warm Greetings...

ABOUT JAIPUR

Jaipur, also popularly known as the Pink City, is the capital and largest city of the Indian state of Rajasthan. During the British rule in India, Jaipur was the capital of the princely state of Jaipur. Founded on 18 November 1727 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, the ruler of Amber, the city today has a population of more than 3.5 million.

Jaipur is the first planned city of India, located in the semi-desert lands of Rajasthan. The city which once had been the capital of the royalty now is the capital city of Rajasthan. The very structure of Jaipur resembles the taste of the Rajputs and the Royal families. At present, Jaipur is a major business center with all requisites of a metropolitan city.
