

Thank you for planning to attend the symposium.

We'd like to inform you detailed directions for visitors and some information for speakers.

Dear Participants

Please note that the symposium will start at 15:00 or 16:00 on October 26, 2015.

Welcome reception will follow.

If you arrive early and did not have a room prepared, please note that there is a coffee shop on the 1st fl. of Sanjo Conference Hall. (Direction is explained below.)

In addition, we'll open Room 001 on BF from 14:00 where you can use for your convenience. WiFi will be available. (We need to give PW)

For non-PIs, we've sent an invitation for city tour/ dinner. If you are interested, please register with it. If you haven't received an invitation, please let us know at mputc@iis.u-tokyo.ac.jp

Dear Speakers

Please bring your presentation data with you in USB and/or in your laptop. When you bring your laptop, please make sure to bring its connector too.

We'll prepare a Mac and a Windows laptops.

Technical supporters from Dr. Hatakeyama's lab will help you just before your talk starts.
