Call for Abstracts

■ Eligibility

The presenting (first) author must be a member of the Physiological Society of Japan (including student members). Non-members must complete the membership procedure at: <http://int.physiology.jp/en/membership/>. Temporary membership for presentations is also available.

■ Limitation on the Number of Presentations

No limit on the number of abstracts per institution, but each presenter may present only one abstract.

■ Abstract Submission via Registration Form

Select “Register for General Presentation” on the form. Enter your registration number in the abstract template. Submit the completed abstract via email attachment.

■ Presentation Format

On-site oral presentations only.

No on-demand or online distribution available.

■ Abstract Preparation

Download the “Abstract Template” from the website. Abstracts must fit on one A4 page, including title, authors, affiliations, and body. Name the file as “Institution Name•Presenter Name”.

■ Presentation Language

The language of the abstract must match that of the oral presentation (Japanese or English).

■ Conflict of Interest (COI) Disclosure

At the time of abstract submission and presentation at the Annual Meeting or any regional meetings of the Physiological Society of Japan, all authors are required to declare the presence or absence of any COI and disclose the COI status at the end of the abstract (see table). For further details, please refer to the Physiological Society of Japan website: <http://physiology.jp/society/download/>

COI Status	COI Declaration Form	End of Abstract	First Slide of Presentation
None	Not required	Clearly state “No conflict of interest”	Disclose the status
Yes but does not fall under items requiring declaration	Not required	Clearly state “No COI to disclose”	Disclose the status
COI requiring declaration exists	All authors must complete and sign the COI declaration form and submit it by postal mail to the Secretariat	Clearly state “COI declared”	Disclose the status

Note: Please be aware that failure to disclose COI information may result in the withdrawal of the abstract.

■ Submission Method and Deadline

Submit abstracts via email with the subject “Regional meeting abstract (Presenter Name)”.

Email: physiol_77@ml.med.tottori-u.ac.jp

Deadline: Tuesday, September 9, 2025

■ Review & Notification
